

Out of the Furnace

(words by C. Denise Young & Jean Giroux / music by C. Denise Young)

Chorus)* And it's time to come out, come out, come out of the furnace!

And it's time to forgive, forget, for good

All the hurting you've been through

And it's time to announce, declare, proclaim your deliverance

And by the pow'r of Jesus' Name, leave the furnace of your pain!

(Last Time)* Stand up where you are, lift your hands in praise,

By the pow'r of Jesus' Name, leave the furnace of your pain! (repeat)

1)* Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego were men like you and I

Confronting pain, they chose to die to things that were compromise

The music began to play, they didn't bow and were thrown to the flames

God's angel appeared inside, and they were saved from the fire!

2)* No matter what your life has been, or how your heart's been tried

Confront your pain and choose to die to the thing that's compromise

Chains will be broken in the dark night of your soul

God's love is more than able to save you from the fire!
