

THE PAST IS THE PAST AT LAST

(words & music by C. Denise Young)

(verse)

Gone is the pain and the guilt of my past
The blood is applied at the altar
The weight that I bore was too great a task
Now the past is the past at last.

(chorus)

And now I sing with gratitude
Now I sing with a heart full of praise
Though my sins were as scarlet, they're white as snow
For the past is the past at last.

(bridge)

Forever I'll tell how You dried all my tears
And forever I'll share of Your love through the years
Forever I'll know I'm never alone
Forever I'll worship and bow at Your throne
